

Hospital Chaplain

what is it?

- person who provides pastoral care and services in hospitals.
- work with hospital patients and their loved ones
- may offer their services to staff members as well, when appropriate
- role of a hospital chaplain is generally the same no matter the religion they practice.

salary

~$53,290

education

- 1) Master's degree in theology, religion, or divinity
- 2) Clinical Pastoral Education, internship or residency
- 3) Must be ordained by a religious organization and certified through the BCCI or NACC